

Volunteer Nomination Committee: role profile and application process

Purpose of the Board or Committee and how it supports ICAEW's Strategy with the supports ICAEW appointments or nominations to external bodies. NNC is accountable to the Governance and Appointments Committee (GAC). Role name Committee Member We are seeking up to four committee members to join this newly established committee (which will also comprise the President, the Deputy-President, a GAC member and the Chief Executive). What you might gain from the role As a member of VNC you will enhance your experience in recruitment and making appointments to volunteer roles and succession planning. You will also gain a deeper understanding of ICAEW and its activities and will develop a greater appreciation of how volunteers contribute to, and are essential to, the work of ICAEW. Attributes sought from candidates VNC is primarily a recruitment and appointment committee. We are seeking members with knowledge, skills or experience of good, open and transparent appointment practices, ideally in the voluntary sector. ICAEW is committed to enhancing the diversity of its committees, and the ideal candidate will have experience or knowledge of how to improve the diversity of committee membership through effective recruitment. The other aspect of the role of the VNC is to help ICAEW to expand the pool of volunteers and to retain volunteers, through offering training and experience programmes for committee members. Some knowledge of ICAEW and its activities would be beneficial but is not essential. You must be a member of ICAEW, in good standing, to be eligible for this role. Time commitment sought from candidates WCC meets at least three times each year. These three meetings will include a minimum of 1 full-day and 2 half-days in meeting plus additional time to read papers and prepare for those meetings. Members of the VNC meetings either in per
We are seeking up to four committee members to join this newly established committee (which will also comprise the President, the Deputy-President, a GAC member and the Chief Executive). What you might gain from the role As a member of VNC you will enhance your experience in recruitment and making appointments to volunteer roles and succession planning. You will also gain a deeper understanding of ICAEW and its activities and will develop a greater appreciation of how volunteers contribute to, and are essential to, the work of ICAEW. Attributes sought from candidates VNC is primarily a recruitment and appointment committee. We are seeking members with knowledge, skills or experience of good, open and transparent appointment practices, ideally in the voluntary sector. ICAEW is committed to enhancing the diversity of its committees, and the ideal candidate will have experience or knowledge of how to improve the diversity of committee membership through effective recruitment. The other aspect of the role of the VNC is to help ICAEW to expand the pool of volunteers and to retain volunteers, through offering training and experience programmes for committee members. Some knowledge of ICAEW and its activities would be beneficial but is not essential. You must be a member of ICAEW, in good standing, to be eligible for this role. Time commitment sought from candidates VNC meets at least three times each year. These three meetings will include a minimum of 1 full-day and 2 half-days in meeting plus additional time to read papers and prepare for those meetings. Members of the VNC may also be asked to support other committee related activities. Meeting location Members can attend VNC meetings either in person at Chartered Accountants' Hall or virtually.	Committee and how it	committee membership of the ICAEW Departmental Boards and their committees including any committees for communities or local networks, and certain ICAEW appointments or nominations to external bodies. VNC is accountable to the Governance and Appointments Committee established committee (which will also comprise the President, the Deputy-President, a GAC member and the Chief Executive). What you might gain from the role As a member of VNC you will enhance your experience in recruitment and making appointments to volunteer roles and succession planning. You will also gain a deeper understanding of ICAEW and its activities and will develop a greater appreciation of how volunteers contribute to, and are essential to, the work of ICAEW. Attributes sought from candidates VNC is primarily a recruitment and appointment committee. We are seeking members with knowledge, skills or experience of good, open and transparent appointment practices, ideally in the voluntary sector. ICAEW is committed to enhancing the diversity of its committees, and the ideal candidate will have experience or knowledge of how to improve the diversity of committee membership through effective recruitment. The other aspect of the role of the VNC is to help ICAEW to expand the pool of volunteers and to retain volunteers, through offering training and experience programmes for committee members. Some knowledge of ICAEW and its activities would be beneficial but is not essential. You must be a member of ICAEW, in good standing, to be eligible for this role. VNC meets at least three times each year. These three meetings will include a minimum of 1 full-day and 2 half-days in meeting plus additional time to read papers and prepare for those meetings. Members of the VNC may also be asked to support other committee related activities. Meeting location Members can attend VNC meetings either in person at Chartered Accountants' Hall or virtually.	Role name	Committee Member making appointments to volunteer roles and succession planning. You will also gain a deeper understanding of ICAEW and its activities and will develop a greater appreciation of how volunteers contribute to, and are essential to, the work of ICAEW. Attributes sought from candidates VNC is primarily a recruitment and appointment committee. We are seeking members with knowledge, skills or experience of good, open and transparent appointment practices, ideally in the voluntary sector. ICAEW is committed to enhancing the diversity of its committees, and the ideal candidate will have experience or knowledge of how to improve the diversity of committee membership through effective recruitment. The other aspect of the role of the VNC is to help ICAEW to expand the pool of volunteers and to retain volunteers, through offering training and experience programmes for committee members. Some knowledge of ICAEW and its activities would be beneficial but is not essential. You must be a member of ICAEW, in good standing, to be eligible for this role. VNC meets at least three times each year. These three meetings will include a minimum of 1 full-day and 2 half-days in meeting plus additional time to read papers and prepare for those meetings. Members of the VNC may also be asked to support other committee related activities. Meeting location Members can attend VNC meetings either in person at Chartered Accountants' Hall or virtually.		established committee (which will also comprise the President, the Deputy-will develop a greater appreciation of how volunteers contribute to, and are essential to, the work of ICAEW. Attributes sought from candidates VNC is primarily a recruitment and appointment committee. We are seeking members with knowledge, skills or experience of good, open and transparent appointment practices, ideally in the voluntary sector. ICAEW is committed to enhancing the diversity of its committees, and the ideal candidate will have experience or knowledge of how to improve the diversity of committee membership through effective recruitment. The other aspect of the role of the VNC is to help ICAEW to expand the pool of volunteers and to retain volunteers, through offering training and experience programmes for committee members. Some knowledge of ICAEW and its activities would be beneficial but is not essential. You must be a member of ICAEW, in good standing, to be eligible for this role. Time commitment sought from candidates VNC meets at least three times each year. These three meetings will include a minimum of 1 full-day and 2 half-days in meeting plus additional time to read papers and prepare for those meetings. Members of the VNC may also be asked to support other committee related activities. Meeting location Members can attend VNC meetings either in person at Chartered Accountants' Hall or virtually.
candidates members with knowledge, skills or experience of good, open and transparent appointment practices, ideally in the voluntary sector. ICAEW is committed to enhancing the diversity of its committees, and the ideal candidate will have experience or knowledge of how to improve the diversity of committee membership through effective recruitment. The other aspect of the role of the VNC is to help ICAEW to expand the pool of volunteers and to retain volunteers, through offering training and experience programmes for committee members. Some knowledge of ICAEW and its activities would be beneficial but is not essential. You must be a member of ICAEW, in good standing, to be eligible for this role. Time commitment sought from candidates VNC meets at least three times each year. These three meetings will include a minimum of 1 full-day and 2 half-days in meeting plus additional time to read papers and prepare for those meetings. Members of the VNC may also be asked to support other committee related activities. Meeting location Members can attend VNC meetings either in person at Chartered Accountants' Hall or virtually.		will develop a greater appreciation of how volunteers contribute to, and are ideal candidate will have experience or knowledge of how to improve the diversity of committee membership through effective recruitment. The other aspect of the role of the VNC is to help ICAEW to expand the pool of volunteers and to retain volunteers, through offering training and experience programmes for committee members. Some knowledge of ICAEW and its activities would be beneficial but is not essential. You must be a member of ICAEW, in good standing, to be eligible for this role. Time commitment sought from candidates VNC meets at least three times each year. These three meetings will include a minimum of 1 full-day and 2 half-days in meeting plus additional time to read papers and prepare for those meetings. Members of the VNC may also be asked to support other committee related activities. Members can attend VNC meetings either in person at Chartered Accountants' Hall or virtually.		members with knowledge, skills or experience of good, open and pool of volunteers and to retain volunteers, through offering training and experience programmes for committee members. Some knowledge of ICAEW and its activities would be beneficial but is not essential. You must be a member of ICAEW, in good standing, to be eligible for this role. Time commitment sought from candidates VNC meets at least three times each year. These three meetings will include a minimum of 1 full-day and 2 half-days in meeting plus additional time to read papers and prepare for those meetings. Members of the VNC may also be asked to support other committee related activities. Meeting location Members can attend VNC meetings either in person at Chartered Accountants' Hall or virtually.		ideal candidate will have experience or knowledge of how to improve the essential. You must be a member of ICAEW, in good standing, to be eligible for this role. Time commitment sought from candidates VNC meets at least three times each year. These three meetings will include a minimum of 1 full-day and 2 half-days in meeting plus additional time to read papers and prepare for those meetings. Members of the VNC may also be asked to support other committee related activities. Meeting location Members can attend VNC meetings either in person at Chartered Accountants' Hall or virtually.		pool of volunteers and to retain volunteers, through offering training and
Time commitment sought from candidates VNC meets at least three times each year. These three meetings will include a minimum of 1 full-day and 2 half-days in meeting plus additional time to read papers and prepare for those meetings. Members of the VNC may also be asked to support other committee related activities. Meeting location Members can attend VNC meetings either in person at Chartered Accountants' Hall or virtually.		_ from candidates These three meetings will include a minimum of 1 full-day and 2 half-days in meeting plus additional time to read papers and prepare for those meetings. Members of the VNC may also be asked to support other committee related activities. Meeting location Members can attend VNC meetings either in person at Chartered Accountants' Hall or virtually.
Meeting location These three meetings will include a minimum of 1 full-day and 2 half-days in meeting plus additional time to read papers and prepare for those meetings. Members of the VNC may also be asked to support other committee related activities. Meeting location Members can attend VNC meetings either in person at Chartered Accountants' Hall or virtually.		VNC meets at least three times each year.
activities. Meeting location Members can attend VNC meetings either in person at Chartered Accountants' Hall or virtually.		, , , Accountants' Hall or virtually.
Ideally at least one meeting a year should be attended in person.	Meeting location	ı ,
		Ideally at least one meeting a year should be attended in person.

VNC Role profile_FINAL.docx Page 1 of 2

Remuneration	The role is unpaid.
	We will reimburse reasonable expenses to attend meetings, in line with the relevant policy.
Term of office	The initial term of office shall be either 2 years or 3 years, renewable once.
Key dates	All applications must be submitted by 30 August 2024. Shortlisting and interviews will take place between 2 and 13 September 2024. Any appointments will be confirmed by 27 September 2024. Unsuccessful candidates will be informed as soon as practicable.
How to apply	Please submit your CV together with a cover note setting out your reasons for wanting to join the VNC and what you would bring to the role to governance.office@icaew.com.