

HODGSON IMPEY

Notes

1. Edward Thomas Peirson was a member of the first Council of the ICAEW.
2. Anthony Wigham Chalmers was a founding member of the Incorporated Society of Liverpool Accountants, the first English body of accountants, a signatory in 1870 to its Memorandum of Incorporation, its first secretary and its president 1878-1894. He was a petitioner for the Charter of the ICAEW and a member of its first Council.

3. The name Edward Thomas Peirson & Sons continues as a practice in Market Harborough.

Sources

The history of the ICAEW 1870-1965, Heinemann, 1966;
The Liverpool Society of Chartered Accountants Centenary 1870-1970, Ian Hargraves, 1970;
 ICAEW List of Members 1881-1988;
 Information supplied by Hodgson Impey.